

108 Donate Blood at Arsenal

The Red Cross mobile blood unit which was stationed at the Joliet Arsenal yesterday had a very successful day. Altho because of mishap the unit was late in arriving, 140 persons from the Ordnance Ammunition Center, United States Rubber company, and the Joliet Arsenal were registered thru the unit and 108 pints of blood were obtained between 12:30 p. m. and 3:30 p. m.

Personnel from the Joliet Arsenal, the Ordnance Ammunition Center, and the United States Rubber company who assisted in setting up the blood donor program were Captain Robert True, Clifford Wavrinek, D. Meader, James Ball, Ollie Croucher, and Donald Beard.

LOCAL volunteer nurses who assisted the regular blood mobile staff nurses were Mrs. John H. Cheville, Mrs. Fayette Shaw, Mrs. Doris Powers, Mrs. Stephen Nagy, Mrs. Mae Schiek, Mrs. Raye Hogue, Mrs. Ada Fitzpatrick, and Mrs. Jerry Harpman. Other Red Cross volunteers who assisted as Nurse Aides, Canteen, Staff Aides, Motor Service, and Gray Ladies were Mrs. Lester Wylie, in charge of volunteers, Mrs. Ernest Klafter, Mrs. L. H. Chapman, Mrs. Floyd Hensel, Mrs. A. M. Scheiderer, Mrs. Raymond McGuire, Mrs. Charles Auringer, Mrs. George Engelman, Mrs. Charles Hinz, Mrs. Kenneth Meinzer, Mrs. Erick Fahr, Mrs. Willard McDowell, Mrs. Norton Newcomb, Mrs. A. M.

Rinehart, Mrs. Dale Montgomery, Mrs. Floyd Olson, Mrs. Edgar Marshall, Mrs. Elmer Weber, Mrs. H. R. Hull, Mrs. William Mercer, Mrs. LeRoy Cheney, Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. C. A. McCay, Mrs. H. W. Carnright, Mrs. Homer Blair, Mrs. William Schofield, Mrs. Wesley Sheridan, Mrs. J. W. Johnson, Mrs. George Walker, and Mrs. Milton Wolfson.

Men from the Arsenal who assisted in unloading and loading the unit truck were Harry Can, Walter Liebcher, Tracy Storm, Harold Flood, John McCarty, John Caveny, Donald Davis, Jack McGraw, Joseph Cotton, Jack Prouty, and James O'Bert.